Subject: Joint Statement on Latest Houthi Attacks

Dear Alexander,

On behalf of the Embassy of Saudi Arabia, I would like to share with you an important statement jointly released on March 11 by the Governments of France, Germany, Italy, the United Kingdom, and the United States with respect to the latest escalation of attacks conducted by the Iranian-backed Houthis.

The joint statement reads as follows:

We, the governments of France, Germany, Italy, the United Kingdom, and the United States of America, condemn the sustained Houthi offensive on the Yemeni city of Ma'rib and the major escalation of attacks the Houthis have conducted and claimed against Saudi Arabia. Their determined attack on Ma'rib is worsening an already dire humanitarian crisis.

Our renewed diplomatic efforts to end the Yemen conflict, in support of the UN Special Envoy, with the support of Saudi Arabia, Oman, and the international community, offer the best hope for ending this war. We urge the Houthis to seize this opportunity for peace and end the ongoing escalation.

We reiterate our firm commitment to the security and integrity of Saudi territory, and to restoring stability and calm along the Saudi/Yemeni border. We reaffirm our strong support for a swift resolution of the Yemeni conflict, which will bring much-needed stability to the region and immediate benefit to the people of Yemen.

The Kingdom of Saudi Arabia is working with US Special Envoy Tim Lenderking and UN Special Envoy Martin Griffiths to reach a comprehensive political settlement to the conflict in accordance with applicable UN Security Council Resolutions. This is in line with the Kingdom's unwavering commitment to achieve peace in Yemen.

Sincerely,

Subject: Joint Statement on Latest Houthi Attacks

Dear Jon,

On behalf of the Embassy of Saudi Arabia, I would like to share with you an important statement jointly released on March 11 by the Governments of France, Germany, Italy, the United Kingdom, and the United States with respect to the latest escalation of attacks conducted by the Iranian-backed Houthis.

The joint statement reads as follows:

We, the governments of France, Germany, Italy, the United Kingdom, and the United States of America, condemn the sustained Houthi offensive on the Yemeni city of Ma'rib and the major escalation of attacks the Houthis have conducted and claimed against Saudi Arabia. Their determined attack on Ma'rib is worsening an already dire humanitarian crisis.

Our renewed diplomatic efforts to end the Yemen conflict, in support of the UN Special Envoy, with the support of Saudi Arabia, Oman, and the international community, offer the best hope for ending this war. We urge the Houthis to seize this opportunity for peace and end the ongoing escalation.

We reiterate our firm commitment to the security and integrity of Saudi territory, and to restoring stability and calm along the Saudi/Yemeni border. We reaffirm our strong support for a swift resolution of the Yemeni conflict, which will bring much-needed stability to the region and immediate benefit to the people of Yemen.

The Kingdom of Saudi Arabia is working with US Special Envoy Tim Lenderking and UN Special Envoy Martin Griffiths to reach a comprehensive political settlement to the conflict in accordance with applicable UN Security Council Resolutions. This is in line with the Kingdom's unwavering commitment to achieve peace in Yemen.

All my best,

Norm

Subject: Joint Statement on Latest Houthi Attacks

Dear Matt,

On behalf of the Embassy of Saudi Arabia, I would like to share with you an important statement jointly released on March 11 by the Governments of France, Germany, Italy, the United Kingdom, and the United States with respect to the latest escalation of attacks conducted by the Iranian-backed Houthis.

The joint statement reads as follows:

We, the governments of France, Germany, Italy, the United Kingdom, and the United States of America, condemn the sustained Houthi offensive on the Yemeni city of Ma'rib and the major escalation of attacks the Houthis have conducted and claimed against Saudi Arabia. Their determined attack on Ma'rib is worsening an already dire humanitarian crisis.

Our renewed diplomatic efforts to end the Yemen conflict, in support of the UN Special Envoy, with the support of Saudi Arabia, Oman, and the international community, offer the best hope for ending this war. We urge the Houthis to seize this opportunity for peace and end the ongoing escalation.

We reiterate our firm commitment to the security and integrity of Saudi territory, and to restoring stability and calm along the Saudi/Yemeni border. We reaffirm our strong support for a swift resolution of the Yemeni conflict, which will bring much-needed stability to the region and immediate benefit to the people of Yemen.

The Kingdom of Saudi Arabia is working with US Special Envoy Tim Lenderking and UN Special Envoy Martin Griffiths to reach a comprehensive political settlement to the conflict in accordance with applicable UN Security Council Resolutions. This is in line with the Kingdom's unwavering commitment to achieve peace in Yemen.

All my best,

Norm

Subject: Joint Statement on Latest Houthi Attacks

Dear Zoe,

On behalf of the Embassy of Saudi Arabia, I would like to share with you an important statement jointly released on March 11 by the Governments of France, Germany, Italy, the United Kingdom, and the United States with respect to the latest escalation of attacks conducted by the Iranian-backed Houthis.

The joint statement reads as follows:

We, the governments of France, Germany, Italy, the United Kingdom, and the United States of America, condemn the sustained Houthi offensive on the Yemeni city of Ma'rib and the major escalation of attacks the Houthis have conducted and claimed against Saudi Arabia. Their determined attack on Ma'rib is worsening an already dire humanitarian crisis.

Our renewed diplomatic efforts to end the Yemen conflict, in support of the UN Special Envoy, with the support of Saudi Arabia, Oman, and the international community, offer the best hope for ending this war. We urge the Houthis to seize this opportunity for peace and end the ongoing escalation.

We reiterate our firm commitment to the security and integrity of Saudi territory, and to restoring stability and calm along the Saudi/Yemeni border. We reaffirm our strong support for a swift resolution of the Yemeni conflict, which will bring much-needed stability to the region and immediate benefit to the people of Yemen.

The Kingdom of Saudi Arabia is working with US Special Envoy Tim Lenderking and UN Special Envoy Martin Griffiths to reach a comprehensive political settlement to the conflict in accordance with applicable UN Security Council Resolutions. This is in line with the Kingdom's unwavering commitment to achieve peace in Yemen.

Sincerely,
